The Spectator Code of Conduct

Proper spectator support and encouragement are critical to the success of developing good soccer players.

As a parent or fan of the SBMC Soccer Club, you agree to the following conduct criteria at all soccer events:

1. You agree to remember young players are involved in soccer for their enjoyment.
2. You agree to be an encourager for all the children at all soccer events.
3. You agree to always have good sportsmanship.
4. You agree to applaud good play on both sides.
5. You agree to only make positive words of encouragement to all players including your own.
6. You agree to not coach from the sidelines because it only confuses players.
7. You agree to help your child learn about responsibility through playing soccer.
8. You agree to not place emphasis on “winning at all costs.”
9. You agree that profane language or harassment of referees, coaches, or players has no place at any youth sports event.
10. You agree to always be on your best behavior.
11. You agree to abide by the rules of the club and your team.
12. You agree that if you do not respect authority, your child will learn to not respect authority.
13. You agree to always be classy.
14. You agree to follow all rules of the game and all rules of the venue.
15. You agree to use the 48-hour rule after all events.
16. You agree to no soccer talk in car rides home from games.
17. You agree to be classy and be a great representative of our SBMC Soccer Club at all times.
18. You understand that Team Volunteer Staff, Team Trainers, and The SBMC Soccer Club Staff can only address your concerns if they know about them.

Fair Play – Please!
